OK, I added the comment (7 words). I don't know what follows Therefore??

As described in Appendix C.2.3, thermogravimetric analysis will be conducted as part of this testing program. An available standard method (ASTM E 1868-02) has been adapted for conducting this thermogravimetric analysis to provide the information needed for this testing program, specifically the temperature at which gasification occurs. Therefore,

Subject: Incineration ECA -- Appendix B.1 additional text

John,

Based on our discussion this afternoon, I propose the following additional text at the beginning of the opening paragraph for Appendix B.1

As described in Appendix C.2.3, thermogravimetric analysis will be conducted as part of this testing program. An available standard method (ASTM E 1868-02) has been adapted for conducting this thermogravimetric analysis to provide the information needed for this testing program. Therefore,

After "Therefore," the existing language picks up.

Also, I am doing the table text add-ons to 2.1 and 4.1 that we discussed

Please comment on the proposed additional text above so that I can complete revision of the set of Appendices to get to you and Rich on Friday. I look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks very much.

Best Regards,

Robert
